Niseko is Asia's premier year round resort. It is best known for receiving the world's best powder snow throughout winter, and as a relaxed outdoor lifestyle destination during the summer months.

Niseko is located on Japan's northern island prefecture of Hokkaido, 2 hours drive away from Sapporo – the largest city in Hokkaido. The area is also known for having excellent produce and agriculture, as well as having some of the cleanest rivers in all of Japan.

More and more nature lovers are attracted to Niseko each year for the slow pace of life, clean living, mild summers and non-stop powder snow throughout the winter.
